About The Limited Edition Collection

The story behind the Limited First Edition collection is Virginia Rose's sense of purpose to make her high-quality and captivating works accessible to a variety of age-groups and cultures and share the intent and composition of her fine art photographs just as she sees the beauty of her subjects through the lenses of her cameras.

Virginia has helped her clients present themselves to achieve their goals through stunning photography and events that capture and share images by establishing mutually inspired connections. One example of these inspiring works based on people, places and concepts is Virginia's work with and renderings of America's Top Model and Dancing With The Stars celebrity, Nyle DiMarco. Virginia worked with Nyle because she saw, appreciated and supported his huge artistic potential, personal drive and desire to give back to the Deaf community. Like Nyle, Virginia is motivated to support and use her talents to give back and share with those with like philosophies. For Nyle, it meant using his celebrity status to establish The Nyle DiMarco Foundation to advance the standing of Deaf individuals and their families. For Virginia it means pursuing art for the sake of art, using her creative works to unlock the best in her captured images, supporting her family and donating her time and supporting charities and foundations, such as Dakota's Dream animal rescue, Children's Charities and Women's Shelter organizations.

About The Artist and Virginia Rose Fine Arts

Almost two decades ago Virginia Rose began her career as a professional celebrity photographer, bringing her photographic vision to star clients in music, stage and screen. Today, Virginia is an artist who happens to use a camera, and is sought after for her incomparable beautiful and evocative theme shoots, modeling portfolios, publication covers and specialty photography. She has been published hundreds of times in print and digital media and is an internationally renowned fine art photographer. A gifted artist, businesswoman, charitable fundraiser and devoted mother, Virginia brings her unique vision, passion, spirituality and technical expertise to each of her distinctive and beautifully unique Virginia Rose Fine Art creations.
